WHY SEE THIS FILM?

The primary goal of this film is to help young people struggling with ADHD and LD reach their full potential. Their odds for success increase dramatically when they have the support of their parents, teachers and community members.

WHO SHOULD SEE THIS FILM?

- Students with LD and ADHD in middle school, high school, college
- Parents of children with these issues
- Teachers and Educators concerned with ADHD and LD
- Young people with these issues transitioning to the workplace
- Adults and young adults with LD and ADHD exploring their own paths to success
- Employers working with people with these issues
- Anyone who cares about these issues and the people who live with them
