

ORTON-GILLINGHAM (OG) SPECIALIST

Trident Academy, located minutes from downtown Charleston, SC, educates students in grades K through 12 who struggle with learning disabilities like dyslexia and ADHD. The OG Specialists should possess a minimum of a four-year degree AND have training conducted by a Fellow in the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners & Educators (AOGPE). Trident Academy, accredited by the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners and Educators as a training site, will provide continuous training. Successful candidates will be dynamic, collaborative, inspirational, and tech-savvy educators. All applicants must have an academic background that includes an undergraduate degree. Ideally, this would be combined with qualifications in Special Education and advanced Orton-Gillingham training.

Successful applicants will:

- Have a track record of excellent teaching.
- Have an interest in and experience with students who have language-based learning differences like dyslexia.
- Have an interest in and experience with active, engaged, collaborative, and personalized learning.
- Be innovative in the integration of computer technology into their teaching.
- Be innovative, creative, and visionary in program planning and curriculum design.
- Have evidence of collaborative planning within and across courses and departments.

Job Type: Full-time or Part-time

Required experience: Teaching - 1 year

Preferred license or certification: AOGPE Associate level - Trident Academy will provide continuous training

Required education: Bachelor's

Send resume to employment@tridentacademy.com

OG Specialist

Educational Requirements:

The OG Specialists should possess a minimum of a four-year degree AND have training conducted by a Fellow in the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners & Educators (AOGPE).

- OG Specialists are expected to
 - continue their training through the Academy seeking the next highest level, e.g. Associate, Certified, Fellow
 - have strong leadership skills
 - possess the personality traits of enthusiasm, creativity, imagination, and a strong desire/ability to collaborate across content areas
 - a desire to help students achieve

Job Duties:

- Provide direct and indirect instructional support and resources to students and teachers in a positive environment utilizing all aspects and principles of OG
- Create and share goals for students with faculty who work with that student and update goals, as needed
- Participate in campus and community events
- Keep abreast of the latest research and trends in teaching and learning, paying particular attention to research on students with learning differences
- To follow the code of ethics of AOGPE
- To perform other duties as assigned by the Head of School
- To support the school and its leadership